ITINERARY

The most successful side of the past decade, the Spanish National Team (La Roja), has won two European Championships and a World Cup. Spain also boasts the most dominant club teams in Europe headed by FC Barcelona and Real Madrid. The two sides form the most famous rivalry in the world. The derby is referred to as "El Clasico" and is underlined with decades of political and cultural tensions. The Spanish way of soccer is renowned for its "total football" approach.

DAY 1

- Relax and enjoy our scheduled flight from North America.
- * Please note that the final itinerary may be slightly different from this program. The final itinerary will be determined based on the size of the group, any adjustments that are required (such as adding additional matches), and the final schedule of the matches. (If additional matches are required, then some sightseeing content will be replaced by the additional matches needed)

DAY 2

- Our 24-hour Tour Director will meet us at the airport and remain with us until our final airport departure. We will be met at the airport by our private bus and we will transfer to our hotel. - Our base for the next seven nights will be in the Barcelona area (Costa Brava to Costa Dorada). Breakfast and dinner (or lunch) will be included at the hotel.
- We begin with a welcome meeting and orientation. Afterwards, enjoy free time to explore the area around the hotel.
- TRAINING SESSION
We will participate in a Training Session at a local field. The training session will be led by your own coaching staff and is designed to prepare the team for upcoming friendly matches. (Training sessions may be in the morning, afternoon or evening and will be determined by the final hotel location, field availability, and the schedule of activities for the day).
- Tonight we will have dinner in the hotel restaurant.

DAY 3

- This morning we will have breakfast at the hotel.
- Today we will travel to our clinic and then into central Barcelona.
- PROFESSIONAL COACHING CLINIC

- Barcelona is one of the hearts of Spanish football and home to both FC Barcelona and RCD Espanyol. At least twice a year, Barcelona and Espanyol contest the Derbi barceloní, one of football's oldest and most historically significant rivalries. Espanyol and Barcelona battle at least twice a year, once at the famed Camp Nou and once, only fifteen minutes away, at Espanyol's RCDE Stadium.

DAY 3

BARCELONA CITY TOUR

Take an introductory City Tour of Barcelona, which will highlight many of the top sights and landmarks. Our tour will be both on our private bus and on foot. Highlights may include Las Ramblas, the Gothic Quarter, La Sagrada Familia, Montjuic, and the Quadrat d'Or.

BASILICA DE LA SAGRADA FAMILIA

Visit La Sagrada Familia, the symbol of Barcelona and the vision of Antoni Gaudí, whom from 1912 forward made the design of this soaring basilica his life's work. If it is not the grandest church in all of Spain, it is certainly the grandest constructed within living memory. The grand church of the Holy Family, based on stories from the New Testament, is a strange and wonderful building that represents the intersection of the imaginative style of Modernisme with the medieval faith that drove construction of the great Gothic cathedrals.

We will have some free time for shopping and exploration.

Tonight we will have dinner in the hotel restaurant.

This evening will be free to enjoy social activities around the hotel area.

DAY 4

This morning we will have breakfast at the hotel.

Today we will travel to Camp Nou and then to our match.

CAMP NOU STADIUM TOUR

Take a visit to Camp Nou, the home ground for Barcelona's biggest and most popular team, and one of Europe's greatest footballing 'cathedrals'. FC Barcelona are the only major football club in the world that doesn't sell advertising space on its strip, and this is because the club does not want to spoil the aesthetics of its famous red and blue jersey. Camp Nou is the biggest stadium in Europe with a capacity of 98,600 people, and it also has shops and a museum of the club's history.

PARC GÜELL

Spend time in Parc Güell, part of the UNESCO World Heritage Site, 'Works of Antoni Gaudí'. Designed primarily by Gaudí, particularly interesting areas of the park include a mosaic pagoda, a lizard fountain spitting water, an undulating bench decorated with ceramic fragments, and an array of unique Doric columns, which are hollow and serve as part of Gaudí's drainage system.

FIRST FRIENDLY MATCH

We will play a Friendly Match against a local club or academy team. The team will meet and compete against athletes of similar ages and skill levels, and have the opportunity to make friends for life. (The teams you will play will be selected after time of booking and will be based on the specific skill level and requirements of your team. We have contacts at every level and take great pride in finding the perfect fit for each friendly match).

Girona is a beautiful medieval city that stands out from the local landscape. Populated at one point by Romans, Arabs, and Jews, the city has a unique archeological heritage that is well worth a visit.

GIRONA WALKING TOUR

Enjoy a Walking Tour of Girona. We begin along the Riu Onyar, admiring Girona's best-known view, before exploring the Rambla de la Libertat and El Call, the medieval Jewish Quarter, where the first Hanukkah celebration since the Jewish expulsion of 1482 was celebrated in 1998.

-  Today we will travel to one of the beaches along Spain's northern Mediterranean coast and then to a professional match.
The Costa Brava and Costa Dorada feature beautiful, rugged coastline in the region of Catalonia in the northeast corner of Spain. Natural beauty, endless miles of sandy beaches and sunshine. The region features modern international tourist resorts, unspoilt fishing villages, sheltered rocky coves and medieval towns with ancient castles.
