The derby is referred to as "El Clasico" and is underlined with decades of political and cultural tensions. The Spanish way of soccer is renowned for its "total football" approach.

Barcelona is the heart and soul of Cataluña, and, with one of Spain's largest ports, has grown through trade and tourism. This beautiful city charms visitors at every turn with its vibrant spirit.

Visit La Sagrada Familia, the symbol of Barcelona and the vision of Antoni Gaudí, whom from 1912 forward made the design of this soaring basilica his life's work. If it is not the grandest church in all of Spain, it is certainly the grandest constructed within living memory. The grand church of the Holy Family, based on stories from the New Testament, is a strange and wonderful building that represents the intersection of the imaginative style of Modernisme with the medieval faith that drove construction of the great Gothic cathedrals.

FC Barcelona is the only major football club in the world that doesn't sell advertising space on its strip, and this is because the club does not want to spoil the aesthetics of its famous red and blue jersey. Camp Nou is the biggest stadium in Europe with a capacity of 98,600 people, and it also has shops and a museum of the club's history.

PARC GÜELL

Spend time in Parc Güell, part of the UNESCO World Heritage Site, 'Works of Antoni Gaudí'. Designed primarily by Gaudí, particularly interesting areas of the park include a mosaic pagoda, a lizard fountain spitting water, an undulating bench decorated with ceramic fragments, and an array of unique Doric columns, which are hollow and serve as part of Gaudí's drainage system.
